

SET YOUR SIGHTS ON THE 33rd ANNUAL CACHE LE PLEW RENDEZVOUS

Bighorn Gun Club Primitive Range
Torrance County Park, Edgewood, NM

Don Shaw, Booshway Emeritus
Invites you to come to one of the
Southwest's oldest continuous rendezvous
September 14 - 19, 2010

Primitive Dress appreciated but not required
Single entry fee: $25.00; Family entry fee: $40.00

Pre-1840's style Black Powder firearms, patched round ball, and open sights only. No camping or trader fees. PRIMITIVE TRADERS ONLY (in primitive camp area)! Separate modern and primitive camping areas. Lots of trees, water, wood, and clean privies provided. Pets can come, but on leashes please.

Activities for the entire family: kid's activities, men's, women's and junior events. 20 station primitive trail walk for rifle, pistol, and flintlock. Hawk and knife trail walk and primitive archery trail walk. Smooth bore shoots and Mountain Man run. There will be instant winner fun shoots. Kid's crafts and activities will be supervised. There will also be contests and demonstrations with a lot of prizes. Best to have an alternative cooking method(s), if it should be dry.

Call Booshway Bob Whelchel (falconkid@q.com) (505) 286-8449 or Segundo Karma Whelchel (karmaw@hotmail.com) (505) 872-5364 for more information or go to the website www.nmbhgc.org

Early setup will be September 14th. All activities will start on September 15th. A Sunday September 19th pancake breakfast will be $5 a plate
Visitors Welcome, No Charge

