Old Business:

1. Karma checked on insurance- $500. deductible, trailer is not covered, damage or is the stolen tin roofing. Not worth filing claim.
2. Tom- BSA has work project coming up but is delayed due to BSA paperwork. Work party is moved back to Orientation time frame, lack of workers during week. The range will be closed during work party. Clean up has been moved to the 14th from the 18th of July, 9:00am.
3. Bob- Jr. Deputy program on 13th. expecting up to 20 participants (7 at first event), need volunteers! "Use common sense" as one of the coaches was "fanning" gun. There will be more shotgun, 22, BP etc. Earn chits for dues. T.C. Sheriffs using range 2pm to midnight on 18th.
4. Suzi- Too much personal trash in cans that should be taken out and not left behind for others to remove. Signs need posted at range to haul out what you bring in. Also, from Tom, target frames are being ruined by some putting on more targets than they can hit. Try to keep them centered. Target stands are being shot to pieces. Six foot tall stands keep more bullets on the range and into the backstop.
5. Bob- Rendezvous meeting after Orientation on the 14th, ~11:30am start.
6. Suzi- 58 shooters at last Sporting Clays event.
